Opportunity rises and I take full advantage

Seeing you on your knees in a very provocative position my cock immediately began to twitch. I watched you for a moment trying to figure out what you were looking for. As my cock continued to harden I realized my opportunity was now, as I could not wait till you found what you were searching for. As I walked up behind you, my footsteps were loud enough to alert you to my presence. Without turning you asked me to help you look for an earring you had dropped. My curiosity over what it was you hunted was now quenched and my attention was now firmly on my hard cock and your beautiful ass and pussy. Without saying a word I placed my hand on your right ass cheek. I slowly carressed it and travelled it down between your legs and gently rubbed your panty covered pussy. You responded casually by telling me you didn't think I'd find it there. You didn't turn or object so I continued to playfully rub it through your panties. You continued to search although I was convinced you had thoroughly covered the area at hand. your panties were becoming moist as your juices began to lubricate your slit. I slowly unzipped my pants, you pretended not to notice. I inserted my cock between your sexy thighs and rubbed my length across the dampness on the fabric covering your mound. You moaned softly reaching a hand between your legs and taking a hold of my cock. You rub my shaft for a short while before informing me I really needed to search deeper. With that you guide the tip of my cock past your wet panties till I'm touching the entrance to your pussy. Marvelling in the fact that I am about to mount a gorgeous woman whom I do not know and who obviously thinks I am someone else has my cock throbbing. You remark on how hard my cock feels as you release your grip and reposition your arm under yourself for support in anticipation of my cock filling you. I need know further encouragement and slowly slide my cock in. Inch by inch I fill your wet pussy until my cock is completely inside. I know I won't last long. I slowly glide in and out hold your hips as I begin fucking you from behind. Your soft moans turning into more audible groans of pleasure. To my surprise you tell me how much my cock is filling you and that you are already going to cum. I pump faster, you begin meeting my thrust by pushing your ass back onto my cock. You begin to squirm and your cunt clamps down firmly as you let a scream of pleasure as you succumb to your orgasm. The grip on my cock is enough to send my cock into spasm as I begin to fill your pussy with my hot cum. As my orgasm slows you pull off me and as you turn you say, "give me that cock, I want to suck our cum off it". Your face shows your surprise as you now realize I am not who you thought. You look at me unsure if your are mad or not. I get my answer as you drop to your knees and finish what you wanted. Your mouth makes my cock twitch and a few more drops of cum ooze out. You suck me clean and suggest I had better go. I zip my pants and leave.
