Another opportunity with my sister-in-law!

Well, my sister-in-law and I finally had a chance for some more fun when our families got together again. We had seen each other one time after the events that took place in the cabin (Part 1) but nothing happened due to the circumstance surrounding us. We didn't want force the issue and end up getting into trouble. However a few weeks back my wife told me that her sister and husband along with the kids were coming to stay with us for the weekend. I chatted with my wife's sister on messenger while we were both at work a couple of times about their upcoming visit (we only chatted during the day while we were both at work. We promised never to do it on our home computers). They were short and sweet, but we left off with her writing... "maybe we can play if it works out." The week prior to them arriving my heart raced every day thinking about scenarios were I might get to see and touch that sexy body of hers. Our agreement of no sex, still stood, but whatever else happened, happened. So they arrived on a Friday evening with the usual fanfare of small chit chat and hellos. Our kids ran off to other parts of the house to ransack through toys and do what kids do. Seeing my sister in law instantly turned me on, knowing that we both discretely explored each others body's as we stood there amongst our spouses. What a fun weekend ahead! The first night they were there came and went without any excitement due to the fact we were never really alone and didn't want to force anything. After a few drinks later that night, my wife and I went off to bed as did our guests. I woke up early and walked into the kitchen where I saw my sister-in-law and wife having some coffee, chatting and reading the paper. The kids were already up watching cartoons in the living room. My brother in law was still asleep. I poured myself some coffee and stood next to my sis-in-law as she stood leaning up against the island in the kitchen. After a minute or two my wife left to check on the children and I was finally alone with her, even if it was only for a minute. Not wasting any time, I asked her if she slept well as I gently placed my hand on her left ass cheek. She gave a huge smile and said she slept great. Feeling her soft ass instantly got me going. I wish we were alone, but I knew my wife was coming back any second. I removed my hand from her ass and went back to my paper still standing right next to her. I then heard my wife walk right by the kitchen, down the hallway into the rear bathroom, which I knew gave me another minute or so to discretely do whatever I could. I placed my hand on the lower back of my sister-in-law and she didn't do anything but keep pretending to read the paper. She slowly stuck out her butt with her elbows rested against the counter and I took that as a go. I lowered my hand beneath her cotton pajama bottoms and felt her slightly cold sexy bare ass cheeks. She continued reading as if nothing was happening. My right hand rubbed and squeezed every part of her ass that I could. Still listening to my wife in the bathroom, I placed my hand between her legs and let my middle finger part her ass cheeks a little bit. I pushed my hand down deeper until I felt the lips of her pussy on either side of my finger. Her legs parted slightly and with only seconds to play I started fingering her. With my hand down the back of her pants, I fingered her as much as I could until I thought we had to stop. I stared down at my hand beneath her pajamas pressed against her ass and finger fucked her as much as I could. I got deep enough in her pussy to really feel her getting wet. I knew I hit a spot when she gave out a little gasp. She was just leaning over giving her ass and pussy to me for as long as we could discretely get away with it. I heard the toilet flush and I gave her pussy one last rub and squeeze as I removed my hand from her pants and went to sit on the other side of the kitchen counter. I needed to sit for a moment until my hard cock had a chance to go down. So we managed a quick little morning play session without incident and we loved it. Fast forward through a day of activities with the families and we were all back at the house later that night. The kids were in bed and the four of us were up playing some games, talking and having some more drinks. Not assuming anything was going to happen again, I stayed alert to any possible opportunity that might arise for us to be alone. Even if it was only for a minute, sometimes those minutes were all that we needed. This cat and mouse game was very exciting. At the end of the long night after we all were basically falling asleep on the couches, we got up to stagger to our respective rooms. After a few minutes my wife plops down in bed and is pretty much asleep right away. I wait a few minutes and head back out to the rest of the house to make sure everything is locked up and the lights are turned off. As I'm doing this, I turn around to see my sister-in-law in the kitchen smiling and doing a silly little wave at me. I turned out the last light and walked over to her and she said her husband is already snoring and she just came out to get some water. I tell her to hold on and I walk quickly back to my room to do a quick check on my wife. She's out like a light so I return nervously to the kitchen. My sister-in-law had just finished filling up her glass and she turns around right as I step next to her. The next thing I felt was pure bliss. I felt her hand gently grab my cock and balls on the outside of my boxers. She gave them a light squeeze and put down her glass. It was dark but we could still see enough of each other through some outside lighting. My sister-in-law grabs the waist band of my boxers and drops them to the ground. And just like that, she's on her knees placing my cock between her sexy lips and tongue. It was very dark and everyone was asleep, except for my wife's sister who was kneeling on the kitchen floor sucking my cock. I grabbed the back of her head and guided it back and forth as my cock slid in and out of my sister-in-law's mouth. She rubbed, licked and sucked my rock hard cock for about another minute or two before I grabbed her shoulders and motioned for her to stand up. She released my cock from her mouth and stood up facing me. My hand instantly went down the front of her pajama bottoms and found her pussy again. This time with my right hand buried between her legs, I lowered her pants with my other hand so I could see all of her. I now was on my knees with her hip facing me. With one hand I fingered my sister in laws pussy and with my other hand I played with her ass enjoying every part of her I could all at once. I kissed her soft round cheeks and pressed them firmly against my face. I knew, as always, time was of the essence so I didn't want to leave any part of her ass or pussy left untouched. I began rubbing the very top of her pussy in fast circles and she became more aggressive in her movements. She then took over for me and began rubbing her clit very fast. I inserted two fingers in my sister-in-law's pussy as she furiously tried to get herself off. I fingered fucked her slowly admiring this sexy woman getting herself off in front of me. My left hand squeezed and fingered her ass trying to stimulate her in every possible way. Shortly thereafter, she bit her bottom lip and her body quivered back and forth. I just knelt there in front of her, my fingers still inside of her and took it all in. When she came down from her high a few moments later, she whispered for me to sit on top the counter. I remember the cold granite pressed against my ass cheeks, but it was a small sacrifice for what was about to come (no pun intended). Like a woman possessed she grabbed my cock and began sucking and stroking as fast as she could. It was nice to finally be able to really lay back and expose ourselves to each other a little bit because in the past our little meetings were very brief and we weren't able to let it all out. I had nothing on from the waist down and my sister-in-law had full easy access to my cock. Looking down after a few minutes and seeing her naked from the waist down, bobbing up and down on my cock was too much to handle. I whispered that I was going to cum and she whispered back to cum in her mouth. Holding the base of my cock, she placed it in her wet mouth again and began sucking harder. Within a few seconds I was unloading stream after stream of cum down her throat. My sister-in-law sucked every drop down and licked me clean as I laid back on my kitchen counter breathing heavily. Wow. This all probably happened within the span of 10 minutes but considering our past encounters it felt like an hour. I scooted down off the counter and we pulled up our pants. She surprised me with a little kiss on the mouth and we headed off to our separate beds. That's a night with my sister-in-law I'll never forget! We never got caught and the rest of weekend was great! I can't wait for the next family get together!
