My Wife Jay And Young James My wife Jay is a very young 43 year old; 5 foot 5 inch tall, blonde with shoulder length hair and green eyes. Her very full 34DD breast add great curves to her slim frame. She is a bit of an exhibitionist when it comes to her tits; she loves to accidentally show and flash them to other men. She likes to wear low cut or see through tops without a bra when we go to markets or supermarkets in other areas where no one knows us. We have often had fun nights on the internet with our web cam with other couples or single men. She will strip for them as she watches them wanking on camera. I have a collection of photos of her that we post on sites, where we love to read the comments from other men. When I have had friends over to watch football or something, she deliberately wears something that will show off her large tits and she teases them "accidentally" by leaving the top buttons undone or making sure when she bends over her tits hang down so we can see them. When Jay and I have sex, she often fantasizes about a friend of mine called James, so one night I told her she could do what ever she wanted with him as long as I was there as well. She begged me to set something up with James so it looked like it was spontaneous and not planned. James is a lot younger than us at 24 years old. He is almost half our age! I first knew him when we worked together. We both followed the same football team, so we often went to the games together or watched the match on TV. We did see a lot of him (but Jay wanted to see more)! On the big night, I invited James over to watch a DVD of our football team's history. He arrived at 9 pm as arranged and Jay was wearing her night dress; a red silk "toga" type thing with a tiny black thong on underneath. When he entered the lounge, Jay acted very shocked and surprised to see him and I pretended I had forgotten he was coming over. Jay made us a few sandwiches and got some beers from the fridge and said she would take a couple of sleeping tablets so we wouldn't wake her while we watched the DVD. I explained to James that I had forgotten that he was coming over and our DVD player had broken so we would have to use the computer DVD player. I asked James to turn on the PC while I got another chair from the dining room. When I returned he said I had a very sexy background on my PC; it was a photo of Jay in her underwear and stockings laying on our bed (which I had set up purposefully for him to see). He told me he found my wife beautiful and sexy the very first time he saw her and had always fantasized about her big tits and asked me what size they were. When I told him they were 34DD his eyes lit up. I reminded him that at 43 years old she was old enough to be his mother, but he didn't care because he had always liked older women. I asked him if he wanted to see some more photos of Jay, and he nearly bit my hand off saying yes. I opened up my picture file and started showing him photos of her in her sexy underwear, nothing too strong at first, then there was one of her with her arm coving her tits and only wearing silk French knickers. He was getting very excited and said he often snuck looks down her top to get a quick look at her tits at every opportunity. I told him that she likes it when she catches other men looking at her tits and she HAS caught him a few time with a crafty look, but then again I had caught him looking at her as well. He went red and asked me if I minded other men looking. I told him that we always talked about it and it turned us both on that others had seen her tits. The next photo showed her tits in full glory with her hand inside her knickers. His hand went to his lap to re-arrange him self and he said, "Christ, that nearly made me cum in my pants!" The next few photos got stronger with her showing and doing everything. James told me that I must be the luckiest man alive to have such a sexy wife and he said he would have to go home soon because he needed to "make himself comfortable". He jokingly asked me if I would e-mail him a photo of Jay to his computer so he had something to wank over when he got home. That was the cue I needed. I asked him if he wanted to see the real thing. Jay said she was going to take some sleeping tablets so we wouldn't wake her, if he wanted to wank over her tits for real she would never know. He said if he covered her in cum she would know when she woke up. I told him that we would both wank over her then tomorrow I would tell her it was me. Well he didn't need asking twice, he was halfway up our stairs with his trousers coming down. As we entered her bedroom I turned on the bed side light and slowly pulled back the cover to reveal her sexy body in her red night dress laying on her back. I asked James if he wanted to pull down her top to see her tits. He almost dived on her to get to her top, but slowly he exposed her tits, letting out a light gasp when he saw them. He was rubbing his cock with his right hand then with his left as he pulled her dress up so he could see her panties. So there lay my beautiful wife with her night dress round her middle, displaying all her charms while James is wanking himself only inches from her. Then he started to lightly pinch her nipples until they were fully erect. I moved to the foot of the bed and slowly pulled down her tiny black thong so James could see her almost bald pussy. I then crawled up the bed and started to tease and lightly lick her, making her open her legs more. James kneeled on the bed next to her, rubbing her tits with one hand and rubbing his cock with the other. He moved his cock to her mouth and gently rested it on her lips, letting his pre-cum smear her delicate lips. Before he could move, Jay reached up with her left hand and grabbed his prick, exclaiming, "Wow James what a lovely thick cock you have!" Then she took as much of it as she could in her mouth and started to suck, looking straight up at him. At first he was stunned but too far gone to care. I moved up from licking her pussy and shoved my cock inside. She was in her element having two cocks at her disposal to do what ever she wanted. Jay pushed James down on the bed and stripped him naked then she lowered her dripping wet cunt onto his cock and started to bounce up and down, letting her tits go wild. James was in heaven seeing Jay's tits bounced as she fucked him. Jay ordered me to stand by her side so she could suck my cock while she fucked James, but I couldn't last as long as young James and I shot my load in her mouth. After swallowing most of it, she let some run down her chin and on to her tits, where she rubbed it in. Getting off James she told him she wanted him to cum over her big tits, so he sat astride her. He wrapped his cock in her tits and fucked as hard and as fast as he could. She tried to catch his knob in her mouth when suddenly he yelled out and shot all his cum over her tits, chin, face and headboard. In fact, he had so much cum he covered everything! Jay licked as much of it off his cock as she could. She told him she never took any sleeping pills because from upstairs she saw him looking at her photos on the computer and was very turned on. As a memento I took a photo of him sitting naked across Jay's tits and let him take it home.
